

PERSONAL STATEMENT

A mixture of right brain creativity and left brain logic . I have the passion for web and graphic design because it combines artistic imagination with analytical problem solving. I believe in designing websites and applications that are aesthetically pleasing, easy to navigate, and ultimately bring clients more business and organisations more awareness. I am currently working as a UI/UX designer at Oust Labs India Pvt. Ltd (An online learning and training platform for people with blue collar jobs). My previous experience includes working as an Intern at BYG (A fitness technology startup) and at Square Radius (New Delhi based Creative Design Agency). My work includes designing websites, web applications, mobile applications , emailers and newsletters.

I make it my job to become familiar with user behaviour, conversion/marketing tactics, and data analysis so my design will instantly perform better. I am constantly enamored by the latest technologies and ever-changing landscapes of social trends and media.

Looking forward to design cool stuffs in future.
